EVENTS & CONFERENCES
Adjara Group is a leading regional company growing rapidly in the areas of hospitality, lifestyle development and agropreneurship. It has gained worldwide recognition for trend-setting establishments and exciting entrepreneurial projects through developing and managing lifestyle brands including the stylish and distinctive Rooms Hotels in Tbilisi and Kazbegi, the luxurious Stamba hotel, the vibrant and dynamic Fabrika Hostel and the high quality standard Holiday Inn. Restaurants created by the company combine the best of world talent in gastronomy with fresh, locally sourced produce. A pioneer in urban and rural development, Adjara Group has shaped the face of the region as a result of the ecosystems which organically grow around each of the enterprises it creates. The company has the ability to turn even the most remote and underdeveloped regions across the country into attractive and sustainable destinations.

A new Rooms Hotel is planned to open in 2018 in the picturesque mountainous region of Kokhta-Mitarbi, which is renowned both for winter sports and summer activities.
Nestled in the Caucasian uplands, Rooms Hotel Kazbegi is situated in Stepantsminda, the capital of Georgia’s Kazbegi region. During Soviet times, the sleepy village was used as a mountain resort for the government officials of the socialist state. More recently Stepantsminda attracted only the most intrepid of travellers, undaunted by the lack of modern accommodation and limited accessibility. However, since the opening of Rooms Hotel Kazbegi in July 2012, the destination has re-emerged as a stunning and accessible resort for Georgians and international guests alike.
MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Rooms Hotel Kazbegi is ideally located for corporate getaways and company retreats, with extensive on-site conference equipment and a comprehensive programme of outdoor pursuits. Surrounded by views which have inspired poets and artists for centuries, it’s no surprise that the creative industries are well catered for and the hotel is able to host showings, exhibitions and workshops. Rooms Hotel Kazbegi is also a popular destination for weddings and private parties.
